Mark 2:22 And no one pours new wine into old wineskins. If New Wine into Old Wineskins is a parable of Jesus. It is found at Matthew 9:14-17, Mark 2:18-22 and Luke 5:33-39. Passage. The parables follow the recruitment of Levi as a disciple of Jesus, and appear to be part of a discussion at a banquet held by him. The parables are told in response to a question about fasting:

Nor do people pour new wine into old wineskins; if they do, the skins will burst; the wine will run out and the wineskins will be ruined. No, they pour new wine into new wineskins, and both are preserved.

New wine and old wineskins. Because we're unfamiliar with ancient practices, sometimes it's difficult for modern readers to understand Jesus's parables. In Jesus's day, people used animal skins—like goatskin—for storing liquids. Fermented drinks like wine expanded, and since an old wineskin would already be stretched to its limit, the new

And no one pours new wine into old wineskins. If he does, the new wine will burst the skins, the wine will run out and the wineskins will be ruined. No, new wine must be poured into new wineskins. And no one after drinking old wine wants the new, for he says, 'The old is better.' Elisha ben Avuyah said:

If he does, its fullness pulls away, the new from the old, and the tear gets worse. 22 Likewise, no one pours new wine into old wineskins. Otherwise, the wine will burst the skins, and both the wine and the skins are ruined. Rather, new wine is poured into fresh wineskins.

38 Rather, new wine must be poured into fresh wineskins. 39 [And] no one who has been drinking old wine desires new, for he says, 'The old is good.' * [ 5:1 ‒ 11 ] This incident has been transposed from his source, Mk 1:16 ‒ 20, which places it immediately after Jesus makes his appearance in Galilee.

The days will come when the bridegroom is taken away from them, and then they will fast. 16 No one puts a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment, for the patch tears away from the garment, and a worse tear is made. 17 Neither is new wine put into old wineskins. If it is, the skins burst and the wine is spilled and the skins are destroyed.

Apr 26, 2021 · Similarly, new wine needs a new wineskin because as the new wine expands during the fermentation process, it stretches the wineskin. An old wineskin will burst under the pressure of new wine. These two parables illustrate the fact that you can't mix old religious rituals with new faith in Jesus.

But new wine must be put into new bottles; and both are preserved. Mark 2:22 | View whole chapter | See verse in context And no man putteth new wine into old bottles: else the new wine doth burst the bottles, and the wine is spilled, and the bottles will be marred: but new wine must be put into new bottles.

Otherwise, the new piece will pull away from the old, making the tear worse. 22 And no one pours new wine into old wineskins. Otherwise, the wine will burst the skins, and both the wine and the wineskins will be ruined.

Mar 08, 2018 · No, they pour new wine into new wineskins! (Matthew 9:17 NIV) John the Baptist's disciples questioned the difference between John's and Jesus' approach to fasting. It wasn't that Jesus didn't believe in fasting (He taught on fasting) but He was often seen at parties and gatherings, in contrast to John's austere lifestyle.
