Replication Harold B. Miller, 2022-03-22 You think you have a beautiful business that you feel is replicate-able across the state you live in, across the country, or across the world. Is the way you created your business model really scale-able? Can you “replicate yourself” and create a franchise that is teach-able and that offers a clear picture of your concept to the market? Entrepreneurs across the world create amazing new models and platforms every day, but not all of them are scale able as a franchise model. Franchising is one of the fastest and most-viable distribution platforms in the world, and an incredible experience for new franchisors who are able to give of themselves to package, train, and provide ongoing coaching and support for their creation, allowing amazing “operators” in the form of franchisees to benefit from their franchise offering. But is your model really the one they should be investing in? And are you as good at building a franchise team as you are running your beautiful business at the unit-level? Franchise consultant and Franchise Science CEO Harold Miller places your mind into the preparation and execution in a point-to-point franchise development to focus on the people, the methods, and the phases of franchising your business model and the key questions to ask yourself along with way by actually taking you through a full development with your own model in mind. There are a number of great franchise books which talk a lot about past successes of various models and offer a useful history of franchising. Replication: The Art and Science of Franchising Your Business focuses on how to think about the option of franchising today, and how various fundamentals will shift during the current labor and management marketplace. Knowing how to prepare and what questions to ask yourself phase-by-phase can solve a lot of problems and save a lot of wasted capital by making better decisions on both the “if” and the “how” of franchising your business model.

Ask a Manager Alison Green,2018-05-01 From the creator of the popular website Ask a Manager and New York's work-advice columnist comes a witty, practical guide to 200 difficult professional conversations—featuring all-new advice! There's a reason Alison Green has been called “the Dear Abby of the work world.” Ten years as a workplace-advice columnist have taught her that people avoid awkward conversations in the office because they simply don't know what to say. Thankfully, Green does—and in this incredibly helpful book, she tackles the tough discussions you may need to have during your career. You'll learn what to say when • coworkers push their work on you—then take credit for it • you accidentally trash-talk someone in an email then hit “reply all” • you're being micromanaged—or not being managed at all • you catch a colleague in a lie • your boss seems unhappy with your work • your cubemate's loud speakerphone is making you homicidal • you got drunk at the holiday party Praise for Ask a Manager “A must-read for anyone who works . . . [Alison Green's] advice boils down to the idea that you should be professional (even when others are not) and that communicating in a straightforward manner with candor and kindness will get you far, no matter where you work.”—Booklist (starred review) “The author's friendly, warm, no-nonsense writing is a pleasure to read, and her advice can be widely applied to relationships in all areas of readers' lives. Ideal for anyone new to the job market or new to management, or anyone hoping to improve their work experience.”—Library Journal (starred review) “I am a huge fan of Alison Green’s Ask a Manager column. This book is even better. It teaches us how to deal with many of the most vexing big and little problems in our workplaces—and to do so with grace, confidence, and a sense of humor.”—Robert Sutton, Stanford professor and author of The No Asshole Rule and The Asshole Survival Guide “Ask a Manager is the ultimate playbook for navigating the traditional workforce in a diplomatic but firm way.”—Erin Lowry, author of Broke Millennial: Stop Scraping By and Get Your Financial Life Together

The Complete Idiot's Guide to Motivational Leadership Scott Snair, 2007 You're no idiot. You know that motivating groups to work together is no easy task. This is true whether you're leading a group of Little Leaguers or a project team of professionals. Yet you're often left wondering what you could do to really show them how to blow away the competition or what others have that you don't. Never fear! While leadership may come easier to some than to others, it's definitely a skill that can be learned. And now The Complete Idiot's Guide to Motivational Leadership can show you how!

The Manual for Life Bonaventure C. Okoro, 2010-08-26 Every inventor writes the manual for the use of his invention. A car has an owner's manual, written by the manufacturer. God the creator/inventor of the universe has written a Manual for His creation, the earth. The irrefutable fact remains that people are either not reading or yielding to the Manual since as statistics indicate 80%-85% of the US population profess to be Christians. Despite the large number of believers, we have a huge disconnect between the practices of people and the ethos of the dictates of the Bible (The Manual). Disagreements on subjects like prayer in schools, debate on the death penalty, abortion, homosexuality and divorce exist when the manual is clear on these subjects. This work makes the case that the reader obeys and uses the Word of God as the manual it ought to be. It is an authentic document proven by historical, prophetic, miracles and the life changing spiritual facts. It also looks at the major world religions, discussing how to use the manual and what not to do with it and invites people to come to life by the shed blood of Jesus. BIOGRAPHY: Dr. Bonaventure C. Okoro MD is an Internist in private practice in Toledo Ohio in the United States. Born in Nigeria, he did his medical education at the University of Medicine & Pharmacy in Cluj-Napoca Romania. After a brief practice in Nigeria, he did his training in Internal Medicine and Emergency Medicine at Howard University in Washington DC. Dr. Okoro now resides with his wife and four children in Ohio, USA and a member of Corner Stone church, a global ministry under the pastoral leadership of Bishop Michael Pitts. His time is spent in full time medical practice and is deeply involved in medical missionary work to different regions of the world.
